Everything you need for an easy to use fuel or pump management system.

FLOWrangler products manage the pumps. Designed to keep you in control at all times, our applications work for any size operation in any industry. Easy to use, so your staff will have no trouble going "live" with our fast fuel management system!

NEWS

FLOWrangler KeyPad is ready to roll.

The family of FLOWrangler products that manages the pumps is designed to keep you in control at all times. We have an application for every size operation in any industry. It is easy to use, so your staff will have no trouble with it, regardless of their experience level.

EASY TO ORDER One phone call to 817-992-DATA (3282) gets the ball rolling. So call us now and let us show you how affordable, how dependable and how easy FLOWrangler is in securing and managing your pumps and tracking your fuel usage.

EASY TO INSTALL No fuss. We can do it all for you. Tell us where you want it and we'll get FLOWrangler installed on your pumps and equipment within a week to 10 days.

EASY TO LEARN On-site training is available. It is our way of making sure that your employees know how easy it is to use FLOWrangler. We can train most people in less than an hour. Nobody has to miss a day of work to be off-site at some class.

EASY TO TRACK Using business software, like Excel®, your data is processed so that you can readily view your critical information in a clear and concise manner. And nobody has to learn a new software system.

EASY SUPPORT Your business is vital to us, so we'll provide a rapid response when you have a need. Two hours or by the next business day, it's our way of providing additional service to your business.
